

Critical & Creative Thinking Choice Board - Fifth Grade 2nd Qtr.

Directions: Activities can be done with individual students or partners.

Questioning Individual Activity If 20cm is the answer, what is the question?	Fluency, Flexibility, Originality & Elaboration Individual Activity For centuries, archeologists and historians have used art as a way to learn how ancient civilizations lived and what they believed in. What if a thousand years from now they do not understand our written language. How can you communicate what life is like for us on earth in the 21 st century.	PMI Individual Activity Humans have had an impact on Earth's surface. What are the Plus, Minus, and Interesting ideas of this impact? Complete a PMI chart to show your ideas. <table border="1" data-bbox="990 597 1350 693"> <tr> <td>P</td> <td>M</td> <td>I</td> </tr> </table>	P	M	I
P	M	I
Mindmapping Individual Activity Mathematicians have developed various problem solving strategies in order to solve real world and complex math problems. Make a mind map of these strategies. Make sure to elaborate, make connections and provide examples.	Visualization Individual Activity Select a part of the ocean floor and research the various ocean creatures found there. Explore and compare ways oceanographers "visualize" the ocean floor. Design an underwater research or colonization facility. Make sure it has things in place to sustain human life.	Point of View Individual Activity Describe the growth of Democracy in Greece from the perspective of a slave or woman in Ancient Greece.
Decisions and Outcomes Individual Activity What if we didn't know about the achievements of classical Rome. How would that change things?	Encapsulations Individual Activity Have you heard these slogans? "So easy a caveman can do it" or "Where a kid can be a kid?" Slogans are a form of encapsulation. It focuses on a main idea and key words to convey a message. Create a slogan or motto for classical China.	Analogy Individual Activity Complete the following analogy. Life is like an ocean because _____. Explain your thinking!			