

Portrait of a Graduate BINGO

Adapted from Churchill Road ES

 Collaborator	 Communicator	 Creative and Critical Thinker	 Goal-Directed and Resilient Individual	 Ethical and Global Citizen
Work with a friend or family member to build, cook, or create something	Take turns reading a book aloud	Drama-Rama: Pretend you are a character from a book you read - show off their talents	Read a book with a character/person that faces a problem and look for new solutions	Choose a book with a character or person who lives far away
Game On! Learn to play a new board game	Write a letter or an email to someone	Read 2 books on the same issue and compare the different points of view	Set a goal to read books that are different from your usual favorites	Sing a song, tell a story, or read something written in a world language
Start a book club or have a book discussion with a friend or family member	Write a 6-word book or a movie review	Draw a picture about a book you read	Try a new activity you've always wanted to do	Do something good for the environment
With a friend, act out a scene from a book	"Open Mic Night" Ask a family member to tell you the stories of your family so that you can pass them on	Re-enact a favorite scene from a book you read	Set a reading goal and try to achieve it	Read a book about a character or person who helps their community
Do a puzzle with a friend or family member	Convince someone to read your favorite book	Use your imagination to design and build a mindmap about a book you're reading	Interview a relative and ask them to describe a hardship they faced and how they overcame it	Read a book about a character or person who is from a time or place different from you