

Social Studies Choice Board - I

Rules Why do we need rules? Create a book with the rules of your house. Explain why the rules at your house are important.	Disagreements Let's say you and a classmate are arguing over who gets to go down the slide next. What would you do? Draw and label your choices with speech bubbles.	Bucket Fillers How are you a bucket filler? Create a card for someone to "fill up their bucket." Send the card to them.
Character Shapes Write and draw about how you demonstrated one of the character shapes today.	Kindness Create a poster about kindness and its importance. Hang your poster up in your house.	Goal Setting Make a goal for yourself this week - it can be about anything (reading, writing, exercising, eating, etc.). Check back in with your goal in one week - did you accomplish your goal? If so, how? If not, what could you change?
You For President Pretend that you want to be the president of the United States. Create a poster about the qualities you have that would make a good leader. Hang your poster in your house.	Map Create a map of a room in your house. Create a map key, too. Don't forget to add the compass rose!	Traveling If you could travel anywhere in the world right now, where would you go? Create a book of the things you'd like to do, eat, see, and experience while you are there.
State of Virginia What is Virginia's... - state bird? - state flower? - state capital? Where is Virginia on a map?	Virginia Regions The VA regions are: - Coastal Plain - Piedmont - Blue Ridge - Valley and Ridge - Appalachian Plateau Which one would you like to visit? Why? Have you visited any of these regions before? What did you do?	Seasons in the Piedmont Region We live in the Piedmont region of Virginia. Draw and label a picture of the activities and things you would see in each season in this region.
